Summary

With two years of experience working on multiple projects using MERN (MongoDB, Express.js, React.js, Node.js) and MEAN stacks, I've developed both frontend and backend skills. In React, I use JSX and Redux Toolkit, and in Angular, I leverage TypeScript, Angular CLI, and RxJS. On the Node.js backend, I've implemented RESTful APIs, JWT authentication, and middleware. This full-stack expertise allows me to build secure, scalable, and high-performing web applications.
